

Chesley Brown Salutes for April 2010

Employee Salutes

“Salute” awards are presented to employees who go the extra mile in their roles within Chesley Brown International. We recognize many actions performed by officers in the normal course of a day go unnoticed. The following were recognized in this month’s Chairman’s Chat:

At The Gateway, Officer Cody Miskin has put a lot of effort in coaching and assisting a recently hired officer. Officer Miskin has done much of this without request from his supervisors and has provided a lot of site specific training as well as valuable feedback to the training supervisor. Officer Miskin has also expressed interest in becoming a training officer.

At Pullman Square, Officer Justin Ferrell responded on a slip and fall where the victim had fallen face first into concrete possibly braking her nose. Officer Ferrell responded quickly and professionally and was able to administer first aid and keep the victim calm until EMS arrived.
