July 11, 2011 – Chesley Brown International, Inc. Announces its newest contract with Jamestown Properties at Ponce City Market

Chesley Brown International, Inc. announces that it has been awarded the contract to secure the southeast's largest brick building encompassing 2 million square feet.

Built in the 1920's, Ponce City Market, formerly known as City Hall East, will be redeveloped to incorporate retail, office and personal residences. The sale was solidified yesterday with the handing over of the keys by Atlanta Mayor Kasim Reed to Jamestown Properties and its subsidiary Green Street Properties. Redevelopment will begin immediately with plans to reopen in 2013.
