

For Immediate Release

June 30, 2011 – Chesley Brown International, Inc. Receives the 2011 Smart Business World Class Customer Service Award.

Chesley Brown International, Inc. announces that it is a 2011 Recipient of the Smart Business World Class Customer Service Award.

World Class Customer Service Award

The World Class Customer Service award honors companies for their superior customer service. The program serves to raise awareness of the importance of customer service in the business world, recognize organizations that demonstrate exceptional customer service and share best practices in customer service from those that do it best.

About Chesley Brown International, Inc. -

Founded in 1990, Chesley Brown is a security management company providing uniform security, consulting, and electronic guarding. Chesley Brown has a network of highly secured command centers and has become a leader in the security industry.