

IN BRIEF

... and from the Chairman

Brent C. Brown

Issue XIV July – September 2002

On August 17th, Carla and I were married in a wonderful ceremony in Marietta, GA with hundreds of our friends and family attending. The next two weeks were spent in England, France and Germany, experiencing other cultures. But, as the saying goes, it truly is a small world.

Our driver-guide in London, who showed us around famous Churchill locations, turns out is a distant cousin. He comes from the same Garrard family that I do. In fact, his nickname 'Gerry' comes from Garrard. We compared notes on the Garrard family history and it checks out. Anyway, the entire trip was a wonderful experience. A special Thank You for all the well wishes, visits, gifts, and cards. We were truly overwhelmed with it all, and we cannot thank you enough.

Awards and Honors

Chesley Brown® Officers continue to be America's finest. In late July, I made a trip to San Francisco to present the entire staff of Stonestown Galleria Public Safety with the Chesley Brown® Unit Citation for Outstanding Performance.

We believe in a strong recognition and awards program and among some of those obtaining special recognition are:

For Supervision and Leadership:

Jeremy Burkinshaw, Wendy Cook, Sandra Worley, William Holbrook and Archie Dinwiddie

For Exceptional Performance:

Rick Kimball, Roger Elauria, Erlnar Marcelo and Jack Nyce

Medal of Valor Awarded

Officer Dennis Monroe, Chesley Brown® Public Safety Officer / Salt Lake City, received the Chesley Brown® Medal of Valor for his actions taken in defense of a private citizen against an armed attacker.

Officer Monroe went above and beyond and put his life in harm's way to defend another. We are very proud of him and extend our warmest and deepest appreciation for his dedication to Chesley Brown® and the people we protect.

Ribbons on the Web

You may see all of the Chesley Brown® Ribbons and how our Officers earn them by going on line to www.chesleybrown.com, click on Chesley Brown University, and then 'Awards and Commendations'.

9/11 Remembered

Like everyone else in the world, we remembered those who lost their lives at the hands of terrorists last September 11th. It is a time that none of us will ever forget where we were when we heard and / or saw the attacks on the World Trade Center, The Pentagon, and the still unknown target of the jetliner that crashed in Pennsylvania.

Chesley Brown® Officers that were working that day continue to wear their award ribbon for National Defense issued by Chesley Brown®. The flags at Chesley Brown Corporate Headquarters were lowered to half-staff at the precise time of the first attack, and remained there throughout the day. Please remember all of those responsible for protecting us on a daily basis.

Finally...

With all of the talk lately of memorials to 9/11 and WWII (among other things), I just want to remind you....Memorials are wonderful and can be great and grand; but there is no finer memorial with more special meaning than the beautiful Stars and Stripes. I think of the elderly WWII vet that looks up at the flag, places his arm around his son, and says, "Son, that's my favorite memorial of all!"

Semper Vigiles!
